ORDER

Application for regular bail. Petitioner is the 3rd accused in a crime No.100/2007 of Nileshwar Police Station. The said crime along with many other similar crimes is being investigated by a special team of investigators constituted by the Government. The crux of the allegation is that the accused persons were running a Kuri by name "Vairajathan Kuri "and had committed the offence of cheating. In the instant crime, that is Crime No.100/2007 of Nileshwar Police Station, the petitioner was arrested on 9.10.07. He is admittedly one of the employees of the said Kuri Company, it is submitted. The petitioner continues in custody from 9.10.07.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner prays, the learned Public Prosecutor does not oppose the said prayer and I am satisfied that the petitioner can now be released on bail, subject of course to appropriate conditions.

3. In the result, this petition is allowed. The petitioner shall be released on bail on the following terms and conditions:

i) The petitioner shall execute a bond for Rs.25,000/- (Rupees twenty five thousand only) with two solvent sureties each for the like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate.

ii) The petitioner shall make himself available for interrogation before the investigating officer on all Mondays for a period of one month. Thereafter, he shall make himself available for interrogation as and when directed by the investigating officer in writing to do so.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that altogether more than 170 cases are pending against those who run the said Kuri. The petitioner apprehends that he may be shown as arrested in all such crimes. If the petitioner is shown as arrested in all cases, it shall be for the petitioner to make necessary application before the learned Magistrate and seek regular bail in all such crimes in which he is arrested. The learned Magistrate, needless to say, must pass appropriate orders, on merits, in accordance with law and expeditiously.
